Stewart Simpson

Dubbing Mixer

stewart.simpson@bbc.co.uk

Profile

Stewart Simpson is a highly experienced and award winning Dubbing Mixer who joined the BBC in 2000 as part of the production trainee scheme that year. He worked as a recording operator until 2006, when he joined the dubbing team as Dubbing Assistant, and has been a staff dubbing mixer since 2010. Stewart learned the ropes on BBC Scotland's long running Continuing Drama – River City as a dubbing editor, and has since produced sound design for a number of network and BBC Scotland series. He has mixed a wide variety of programmes from a breadth of genres, from Children's TV to Current Affairs, Specialist Factual to Continuing Drama.
